Ed Little Resigns Administrator Post

The resignation of Edgar Little as administrator of Hancock County Hospital was accepted by the Hospital Board at a called meeting Monday night.

Kenneth W. Pepperdene, chairman of the board, said he received Little's resignation in a letter dated June 10 and summoned the meeting to act on it at the first available date.

Little concluded his duties with the hospital on Tuesday but will be paid through the end of June under authorization of the board. Mrs. Louis Depree, supervisor of nurses, has been named acting administrator until a successor for Little is found.

Little said today he had accepted a tentative position on the staff of Lester Tuck, administrator of Singing River Hospital, Pascagoula.

Little came to this hospital March 3, 1958 as an X-ray technician. He succeeded to the office of administrator April 14, 1958 when former administrator Pat Clement resigned. A graduate of the School of Medical Technology, Memphis, Tenn., he also attended Perkinson Junior College and Mississippi State University. He is a native of Gulfport.

In notifying the board of his intention to resign, Little noted it was well aware this was not his first attempt to leave the post and his previous efforts to this end had not been accepted. He added he preferred "not to go into the reasons at this time" for his decision. Little asked that the resignation be effective July 15 with the understanding that he be relieved of his duties July 1.

Cox Enlists for
Navy Nuclear Work
Edward William Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Cox and a 1959 graduate of Bay High School, enlisted Wednesday in the Navy under the high school graduate training program in the nuclear field.

Chief Kent of the Navy Recruiting Station said the nuclear phase of the program is restricted to high school graduates with high qualifications. The chief is at the Hancock County Courthouse every Thursday afternoon.

Five More
Candidates Announce
Five more candidates have formally announced their candidacy for election, subject to the Aug. 4 Democratic primary election.

Sylvester Moran, of Kiln, candidate for tax assessor, dates his political beginnings back to 1916 when he served as county treasurer for one term. He was county auditor until March 1 this year and has served as deputy sheriff. He ran for tax assessor three terms ago.

August Scaffidi and Gordon Courge have announced for District 5 Supervisor, an increasingly tight race. Scaffidi, a political newcomer, has served as deputy sheriff four years and is operator of a U. S. 90 service station and restaurant.

saying he was due a two-week vacation and it would probably require about 30 days to acquire other employment.

He expressed appreciation for the thoughtfulness and kindness shown him by the board in the past.

Pepperdene said the procedure will be to advertise the post to fill the vacancy but indicated it may be some time before this is done. The board chairman explained that study will be given to the qualifications required for an administrator when the new half a million dollar hospital is opened.

Little had served as both administrator and laboratory technician at a salary of $525 a month. There is a likelihood that these two positions will be separated in the future.

In the meantime, Pepperdene and T. T. Reboul Jr., board treasurer, are handling the office work at the hospital.

Brockman Is Promoted By Phone Firm

Ott Brockman, graduate of Bay High school, has been promoted from office manager to Hattiesburg group manager for Southern Bell Telephone Co., according to F. J. Lundy, district manager.

Brockman's promotion becomes effective July 1.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Brockman of 728 Beach, Waveland. He is married to the former Betty Courge of Lakeshore, and is the father of two children.

He is a church school teacher at Broad Street Methodist Church and an active civic worker presently serving as president of the Exchange Club among other activities.

Brockman, who has served two years in his present position, is a native of New Orleans. He started his telephone employment in Gulfport, in 1950, and has held assignments in Laurel, Hattiesburg, and Biloxi. He was former telephone manager for Kessler Air Force Base before returning to Hattiesburg in 1956.

IMPROVED PIER—Construction has been completed on Waveland's Coleman Avenue municipal pier. A new Gulf-end platform with steps at the end leading to the water and extension is now ready for use. Waveland also replaced bad planking and guard rails on the pier.

HOUSECLEANING TIME—Checking progress of the Parks and Playground Commission's beach cleaning project is Mrs. Theo Tudury, chairman. The city's beaches were graded and scraped last week with heavy county road equipment. Mrs. Tudury said that other improvements and repairs were planned for this tourist attraction.

U.S. 11 Wreck Yields 10th Fatal for 1959

A Franklinton, La., woman was killed and four others injured in a head-on collision at 4:30 p.m. Friday on U. S. 11, near the Highway 43 junction at Santa Rosa, reports Highway Patrolman William P. Kenny.

Dead is Mrs. Alma Simmons, 53, Rte. 1, Franklinton, whose body was taken to McDonald Funeral Home, Picayune. Death was caused by internal and head injuries, Kenny said. She is Hancock County's 10th traffic fatality for 1959.

Injured and taken to Crosby Memorial Hospital were: Mrs. Sybil Shaw, daughter of the dead woman and a passenger in her car, upper teeth knocked out, fractured jaw and broken leg.

John Reid Blackwell, 64, Winston-Salem, N. C., driver of the other car, general cuts and bruises and fractured right wrist.

His wife, 54, internal injuries and broken knee cap.

Janet Blackwell, 20, their daughter, slight laceration of the ear.

The accident apparently occurred when Mrs. Simmons, traveling south on 11, started across to the 43 junction and struck the Blackwell car, traveling north on 11. Both cars were totally wrecked, Kenny said.

The Blackwells were returning, they told Kenny, from Missouri, where their daughter had graduated from college. No charges were pressed, he said.

No one was injured in another U. S. 90 wreck at 7:30 a.m. today, reports Highway Patrolman K. V. Allen, investigating officer.

The accident occurred when Russell Welch, 54, of Rte. 1, Box 23, Anacoco, La., traveling west, attempted a left hand turn into the Elephant Rendezvous and was struck on the left side by the other driver, Walter P. Cox, 54, of 2007 Kentucky Avenue, Mobile, Ala., also traveling west.

Traveling with Welch were his wife and daughter, Angela. Damage to Cox's 1958 Ford Sedan was estimated at $300 and to Welch's 1957 Chevrolet pickup truck at $20.

No charges were pressed, Allen said.

Stevenson Bid Low on City Hall Air Conditioning

Stevenson's Radio and Electric Service was low bidder at $850 for the installation of five one-ton air conditioners in City Hall Monday.

Mayor John Scaffidi and Commissioner J. Cyril Glover met with bidders for the job of putting air conditioning units in the office of the tax collector and assessor. After lengthy discussion with the bidders about what their conditions could do, they decided to postpone decision until Commissioner Warren Traub, who is the council's expert on air conditioning, could be present.

Other companies bidding on the job and present at the council meeting were: Edward Electric and Refrigeration Service, $917; and W. A. McDonald, represented by Jimmy McDonald, $890.95.

Correction

According to August Scaffidi he handled the sale to A. E. Alexander of property for a motel adjacent to Scaffidi's Wheel-lan Cafe. Last week's Echo apparently was in error in attributing the handling of the sale to a local resident.

Supervisors Contribute $1,000 for Labor Survey

A contribution of $1,000 to the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce to conduct an available labor survey in the Hancock County-Bay St. Louis area was approved by the board of supervisors Monday.

Three members of the county's Industrial Committee, Chairman A. G. Dantagnan, Leo W. Seal Jr. and H. H. Shattuck, asked for the funds to cover the cost of postage and a card file. Each letter is estimated to cost 12 cents, including return postage.

This survey will cover 99 per cent of the county's population, said Shattuck. The committee will use the combined mailing lists of Mississippi Power and Light Co. and the Coast Electric Power Assn. Shattuck estimated that there were 6,550 meters in the county.

Johnson Shaw, Beat 3, Supervisor, questioned whether a labor survey of just this county's potential labor would yield enough labor to satisfy a major company. Dantagnan replied that the questionnaire had space for the listing of additional names of others who would be interested in work.

He added that a number of people would return to Hancock County if a job were offered.

Beat 5 Supervisor R. G. Hubbard Jr. questioned the need for so detailed a survey on the grounds that any incoming corporation would double-check available figures. He agreed, though, with Dantagnan's statement that the figures must be available to interested manufacturers in the first place.

Shattuck said City Commission Council had agreed to provide the clerical help required to distribute the questionnaires.

Dantagnan also asked the board to replace from the general fund the approximate $2,000 from the airport fund spent on a well at the airport.

He said that if $2,300 more in county funds could be spent on paving the airport for use also as a drag strip, the three representatives of a New Orleans drag racing firm who have appeared three times so far could prepare to start paying the strip.

Hubbard noted that there was a question of whether adequate workmen, supervisors and equipment could be made available for the job. He added that since the well was on airport property, it was doubtful that Clerk of Courts A. C. Mitchell, absent because of Chancery Court, could switch money back to the airport fund to replace it.

Judge Gives Sentences To 4 Youths

Four teenagers charged with auto theft were sentenced by Judge William G. Hewes behind closed doors Tuesday in Chancery Court. The judge cleared the courtroom for the trial of the youths, admitting only the defendant, his family and counsel in hearing each case.

Declining to identify the defendants, Judge Hewes announced disposition of the cases as follows:

One boy is to report to the sheriff's office every Saturday morning to give account for his actions and associations during the past week. He is also to report back to the court during October term for final disposition of the case.

Another boy was paroled to his mother with the court retaining jurisdiction of the case. The boy is to report to court in October term.

In the case of one youth whose family lives in Baton Rouge, La., the boy was referred to Family Court, Baton Rouge, and placed under the jurisdiction and supervision of that court.

One youth was committed to Columbia Training School until further orders of the court. The school is to report to Judge Hewes the last week of August and inform him whether or not the boy merits public schooling in New Orleans.

Judge Hewes said, "We try to rehabilitate these boys but we

Auto Rams Fireplug; Water Service Halted

Approximately 300 to 400 south Waveland residents were left without water Friday night when John D. Peterson, 23, of Waveland lost control of his car and crashed into a town fireplug.

Young Peterson, on leave from the Marine Corps, was admitted to the Hancock County Hospital Friday night with a concussion. He was transferred Saturday afternoon to the Veterans Administration Hospital in Biloxi.

The accident occurred about 10 p.m. when Peterson lost control of the car while crossing the tracks on Waveland Avenue near the depot. It appears that the car crossed Railroad Avenue, tore into the fireplug at the intersection of Railroad and Waveland Avenues, slid, swiped a stop sign, and plowed 200-250 feet into a picnic area.

according to Town Marshall Fred Bourgeois.

This report was confirmed by Mel R. Villere, the accident's only witness.

The demolished car, a 1954 Chevrolet, was owned by Peterson's brother, Leroy, Bourgeois estimated the damage at about $400-$500.

Mayor Garfield Lader who also heads the water and gas system said that no charges were being held against Peterson so far, except that he was being held responsible for the damage to city property.

Lader said that the bottom of the fireplug was completely demolished and would have to be replaced. Temporary repairs were completed and service restored at 5:15 a.m. Saturday.

Answers Wanted

On the same day last week three candidates for governor said essentially the same thing. The three candidates were: Mr. Ross Barnett, Lt. Gov. Carroll Gartin and Mr. Charles L. Sullivan. They all stated categorically that under them Mississippi would never have integrated public schools.

This editor hopes they are right. He further expects that no candidate for governor who said differently could be elected. Two things bother him. First, why all this emotional beating of the drum on this question, and, secondly, no candidate has said what he would do if faced with the same court orders the schools in Prince Edward County, Virginia, faced. Would he advocate the closing of all public schools in the county? The Board of Supervisors of that county has refused to appropriate money to the schools or levy the school tax.

Candidate Sullivan went so far as to denounce Governor Lindsay Almond of Virginia without saying what he would do under the same circumstances. Not only was his tactic bad, but like the others his statement on this point was demagogic. When the issue is finally joined on this question, the choice is between no public schools and integrated (very limited we hope) public schools. In Virginia this was made a question of local option.

The Echo hopes the question never arises in Mississippi, but if such should not prove the case where do our candidates for Governor stand?

Investment in Youth

The Bay Softball League got underway last week, and on Tuesday the boys participating in the Bay St. Louis Youth League started practice. With two leagues getting underway here, for a while Bay residents will not be dependent on television to watch team sports. The class of athletic prowess may be different, but knowing the participants can make the local games more interesting than watching the big league stars in California.

The Echo wishes both leagues real success, but particularly is interested in the youth league. In addition to bruises and sore muscles, it provides the participating boys with recreation, physical conditioning and supervised team endeavor, all recommended as aids for making good citizens.

Congratulations

Within a month two similar businesses in Hancock County have received major safety awards. Coast Electric Power Association received a certificate of commendation from the National Safety Council for its record of four years without a loss-of-time accident. New Mississippi Power Company has been awarded the Injury Frequency Reduction Award for reducing injury rates last year by 51 per cent.

Congratulations to both utilities, their management and their employees in order. Unfortunately no such congratulations are in order for some of the drivers on Highway 90 nor for Highway Commissioner John Smith.

Views From Other Newspapers

Neighbor Henry Harris at the West Point Times Leader rang a bell for Mississippi at the 3rd annual convention of the Mississippi Press Association meeting last week in Biloxi.

Editor Harris pointed out that Mississippians are spending 635 million dollars a year in wholesale and retail trade out of state, most of it in Memphis and New Orleans.

"If half of this could be diverted back to Mississippi, tax revenues would be increased 70 per cent and the state's economy would boom," the editor stated.

"Statistically," he said, "last year 1958 retail sales in Mississippi totaled $4,700,000,000. At the same time, Mississippians spent in retail centers outside the state (Memphis, New Orleans, Birmingham, Mobile, and others) a total of $200 million or approximately 12 per cent of Mississippi's retail sales. An estimated 50 per cent of retail purchases made out of state are shipped into Memphis and New Orleans."

The "Harris Plan" is to spend the money at home and make this state a new economic giant in the South.

We heartily endorse the "Harris Plan" but the inescapable question comes to mind - why in the money spent in Memphis and New Orleans in the first place?

It is not hard to "supply and demand" reasons. As if Memphis and New Orleans are selling what the state needs, then in Memphis and New Orleans we find the money that is spent in the state.

Money mentioned in the Harris Plan will stay at home only if we give it reason to stay.

County Agent Notes ...

HOG PRODUCTION

The fat hog has no place in today's hog program. The future of hog production depends, not only on efficient producers, but on the kind of hogs they raise.

The sooner you switch to a meatier type of hog the better off the entire swine industry will be.

It doesn't matter whether you practice straight breeding or cross breeding. Regardless of your breed use a meaty, heavy bone, well balanced, rugged boar. He is 50 per cent of your breeding program so don't settle for just another boar.

When selecting boars and gilts, check the underline. Make sure they have 12, or more well spaced teats. Check for blind or inverted nipples.

TEMPORARY GRAZING

This is an ideal time to make another planting of Sudan and millet in Hancock County.

Most farmers at this time of year prefer millet over Sudan.

Use 75 pounds per acre of nitrogen under Sudan and millet planted at this time.

Unless your acreage is unlimited, it will probably pay you to graze these areas an hour or two a day rather than leaving the cows on all the time.

CORN WEED CONTROL

Controlling weeds and vines after lay by time will make your corn harvesting lots easier. It will also help you make more corn, as weeds compete with the corn for moisture and plant food.

Try using 2,4-D to get rid of these weeds.

If your corn is tied by weeds and vines, you can lose up to 30 per cent of the crop. With hand harvesting weeds and vines can make the corn awful hard to get.

One-half pound of amine 2,4-D mixed in 10 to 20 gallons of water per acre should give you excellent control of morning glories, cockleburrs, pig weed, coffee weed, rag weed and most other broad-leaf weeds.

If the corn is over 15 inches tall, use two drop nozzles per middle to get good coverage of weeds in middle and in seed drill without getting too much spray on the corn.

Do not spray corn when it is silking and tasseling, as it is quite likely to be damaged by the 2,4-D at this stage.

No charges have been placed against Alvin Bourgeois of Waveland, operator of the vehicle which struck 17-year-old Anthony Knecht of 510 Beach Blvd., on Railroad Avenue June 8, according to Beat 5 Constable Herman Mazarakis.

Knecht, who was admitted that night to Hancock County Hospital for treatment of leg, facial and foot injuries and released the next day, was walking along the right side of the road when, he told Mazarakis he jumped to the left to avoid a puddle of water.

Mazarakis, who was traveling north toward Bourgeois' oncoming car on Railroad Avenue, said he saw the car swerve to the left and back and then stop about 100 feet from the accident.

The constable stopped and Bourgeois told him he had struck the youth, who was able to walk but was sent by Fahey ambulance to the hospital. The youth was wearing a dark raincoat, the constable said.

The latter two were left at Louise's Candy Shop where it was alleged they took a 1959 Oldsmobile belonging to Roland Talline. The boys were picked up the following morning by police officers.

Sparkling Recipes for Your July 4 Celebration

Cherry tarts sparkle with taste appeal as a July 4 dessert, but don't reserve them for one day in the year, alone. They're good whenever you want a special treat for the family.

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

For the Fourth of July, or for any occasion when bright, tempting red tarts are in order, try this recipe. You'll enjoy it.

Cherry Tarts

(Eight 4 1/2-inch tarts)

Four-and one-half cups red, sour, pitted cherries in heavy syrup (two 1-pound 4-ounce cans), 1/4 teaspoon almond extract, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, eight 4 1/2-inch baked tart shells, 2 1/2 cups whipped cherry instant nonfat dry milk crystals.

Drain cherries; reserve syrup. Chill 1/2 cup syrup to make whipped cherry instant crystals. Combine remaining syrup, almond extract and cornstarch; blend. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened and clear. Combine thickened syrup and cherries; mix well. Fill tart shells with cherry mixture. Chill. Serve with whipped cherry topping.

To whip cherry instant nonfat dry milk crystals, about 2 1/2 cups:

1. Mix 1/2 cup instant nonfat dry milk crystals with 1/2 cup well-chilled cherry syrup in bowl.

2. Whip until soft peaks form, about 3 to 4 minutes. Add 2 tablespoons lemon juice.

3. Continue beating until stiff peaks form, 3-to-4 minutes longer.

C to Keep Office Despite and Failure

The local Red Cross chapter was not closed as threatened by the failure of the drive to reach its quota, according to Robert Smith, campaign chairman. The drive fell short by $2,000, but the chapter has a surplus of money that can be added to the drive to enable it to continue operations, Hamilton executive.

Milton listed an over-abundance of drives during the time of the Red Cross Drive, March 1947, as the main reason for the difficulty in reaching the goal.

80 Youths Enroll During First Week of Youth League Practice

Sixty-five boys, aged eight through 15, reported for the first Bay St. Louis Youth League practice session Monday morning at the Carroll Avenue field.

Happy Mahfouz, director of the league, said that he was very pleased with the first morning's turn out and that the number had increased to about 80 boys by Wednesday.

Mahfouz said that he expects more boys out as organization of the league gets underway. He has divided the youths into age groups of 8-10, 11-12, and 13-15. Plans are to have at least eight teams participating in the league.

The league has had six practice games, Mahfouz said that the boys have shown a considerable amount of ability and interest. He added that the boys have shown such enthusiasm that they don't want to leave when the practice session is over.

Teams will be named by Monday and boys will be assigned by age and ability. Mahfouz said he wants to give every boy and every team an even chance and that there would be no team that had all top-notch players.

As yet there are no sponsors for any teams but the league is hoping that local businesses will offer to sponsor the individual teams as is done with Little League teams in other towns.

Practice sessions are daily during the week at 9:00 a.m. on the Carroll Ave. softball field. Teams will play within their own age group and there is a possibility of games during the season with other Bay area league teams.

Shoulda Gone Fishin'

By DAVID WEBB

There are few sports that have such avid fans as fishing. When Trout Fever gets into a man there is no telling what he will do. Many have left their wives, children and businesses when this wonderful malady has overcome them.

Hancock County, being on the Gulf Coast—fisherman's paradise—has its share of Trout Fever victims. We will try to tell you about some of the fellows who go fishing occasionally and are lucky enough to catch a few. Alvin Lader gave us a big hand this week with reports on stories he heard.

William Olson, we heard, caught 132 speckled trout using live shrimp for bait early Sunday morning. No one knows exactly where he went, but it was somewhere around the railroad bridge.

Oswald Villare told us about catching seven sheepshead, totaling 45 pounds, just off the railroad bridge.

Some Louisianian fishermen caught 34 specks about 500 yards off Cox's landing and southeast of the railroad bridge.

John Winters told us that crabsitting off the seawall has been good this week.

Robert Fleming caught 71 specks last Friday using live shrimp.

Fishing for speckled sea trout will be good in the Bay area until October when they take to the rivers. Good places to fish for the specks along the coast are Bay of St. Louis, in oyster beds along the coast, Ship Island Channel, around Ship and Cat Islands, Biloxi Channel and the Back Bay of Biloxi.

The specks can be caught on almost any kind of tackle using shrimp for bait. Many people have successful catches using standard bass tackle, trolling with spoons and special wooden minnows.

If you get the fever, we wish you luck and don't forget to let us know about those catches.

STRICTLY FRESH

Enthusiasm for the home team is, very often, directly proportionate to the box score at the end of a ball game.

The boss is a true baseball fan. He revolves rapidly and gives off quantities of hot air when anyone suggests taking an afternoon off to go to the ball park.

Relatively few girls play baseball, but many pitch a nice curve.

All devotees of the double-header aren't necessarily baseball fans.

It's amazing how wrong an umpire can be when he rules against your team.

Car freeze up in summer? This new complaint can occur if your car has an air conditioner, and if there is insufficient antifreeze in the cooling system.

Boss is away today. We're going to stay and enjoy every minute of it, even though we're sick enough to go home.

CASEY AT THE BAT—J. Cyril Glover, commissioner of public utilities, gets set to wallop Mayor John Scalfide's pitch as several city officials had a warm-up session before Bay Softball League's opening game last Thursday night. Commissioner Warren Traub was catcher.

C&S Leads League For Opening Week

C and S Fine Foods with two wins and no losses is leading the Bay Softball League as of Tuesday's results when they posted a 10-0 win over Coast Electric.

Following closely behind, only one-half game out of first, are Trapani's, who beat out Regal Beer 9-1, Bea Georgi's who beat Stiefel and Sons 12-1 and Bay KC's who edged by Youth Center 12-11 on opening night.

In the third division with one win and one loss, one game out of first place is Southern Realty. With one loss and no wins, one and a half games out are Youth Center, Stiefel and Sons, and Coast Electric.

Regal Beer holds down the cellar spot with two losses and no wins.

A new team to some of the fans is REA Coast Electric which was formed just before season opening.

Tonight's games schedule Trapani's against Bay KC's and Youth Center against Stiefel and Sons in a double header at 7:45 on the Carroll Avenue field.

Games for this week are Bea Georgi's vs. REA Coast Electric, Friday; Stiefel and Sons vs. Bay KC's, Regal Beer vs. C. and S. Fine Foods, Tuesday.

Building Permit Checking Is Underway in Waveland

Fees for sixteen building permits yielding total construction costs of $46,350.00 have been collected by Waveland's newly appointed inspector, Michael Carrick, according to C. O. Dufour, town council secretary.

Carrick was appointed to collect the fees at the Town Council meeting May 4. His salary was based on 50 cents per permit issued. Collections began June 1.

New rates were also set by the Council, although the fee from June 1, 1957, through May 30, 1959, remained a flat $2.50. Carrick was directed to enforce collection from all who without permits started new construction or improvements valued over $50 in this period.

Carrick has collected fees from construction valued up to $3,200 that was built before fee collection was enforced and up to $6,000 on new construction, said Dufour.

The new rates are: up to $50, no permit required; for the first $1,000 or any part over $50 thereof, $2.50; and for each additional $1,000 or part thereof, $1 with a maximum of $10.50.

RECEIVES DEGREE—A doctor of dental surgery degree has been awarded by Loyola University to Laton J. Weinberg Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Weinberg Sr. and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Kingston of Bay St. Louis. The new dentist plans to practice in the New Orleans area.

WAY CLEARED FOR NEW HOSPITAL

The big news back in June, 1934 was signing of contracts by the governor that made it possible to resume construction on $3 million worth of new hospital facilities for some 2,700 patients being treated in antiquated facilities. To-day, Mississippi is noted for the excellence of its hospitals and medical progress, another sign of progress and opportunity for all citizens.

Through a program of Self-Regulation, the legal beer industry works constantly to be sure beer is sold and handled in Mississippi only in the most wholesome manner.

The United States Brewers Foundation maintains regular contact with all licensed beer retailers so as to help keep up these high standards. The Foundation also urges strict enforcement of Mississippi laws.

The state's tax on malt beverages is one of the highest in the nation. Largely through public acceptance of this light, bright beverage of moderation, legally-regulated beer still brings about $4 million a year in taxes, an important source of Old Age, road, school and Homestead Exemption funds.

Magazine Tells Of U.S. Riviera And Bay St. Louis

America's Riviera is the title of an article appearing in the May issue of a General Motors subsidiary publication which tells of the joys and scenic beauty of the 40-mile curve in the Mississippi Gulf Coast arching from Pascagoula to Bay St. Louis.

"Sometimes called the 'poor man's Riviera,' this strip of Southern seashore has in the past 12 years been upgraded to fully realize the resort potential of its balmy breezes, near-tropical foliage and even-tempered temperatures," the article reads.

... From the east, the Spanish Trail first meets the gulf at Pascagoula, land of the Singing River, then travels along the island-sentried coastline through Ocean Springs, Biloxi, Gulfport, Long Beach, Pass Christian and Bay St. Louis, almost in New Orleans' back yard."

It describes the western portion of the coast as quiet, comfortable residential cities with relaxing resort motels and rooms by the season, Bay St. Louis, it continues, was "a queen resort city in the early 19th century--now a friendly, gaily informal vacationland."

RUSSELL ELLIOTT
CANDIDATE FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE
BEAT, 5

In the Feb. 26 issue of this paper, I made my formal announcement requesting your consideration in the forthcoming election as one of your Justices of the Peace in Beat 5. In this issue, I'd like to give you some services, as a Justice, I feel should be mandatory.

First of all, I believe a Justice of the Peace should always execute his duties with dignity, fairness and impartiality. He should feel that punishment alone is not enough, but punishment of the guilty along with correction for the future should be his main objective. He should always fight for the protection and exonerated of the innocent.

A Justice of the Peace should at all times be a champion of the youth. He should be willing to spend endless hours towards the education, obedience, and understanding of the law by our children. He should divert every effort towards helping to mold good citizens and leaders out of our youths, so that as they reach maturity they can properly take over the leadership and control of their communities with assurance to the people that their beloved families, homesteads, businesses and communities are in safe and protective hands.

I have the qualifications and will carry out the above to the best of my ability. I have always been active in assisting our children and teenagers whenever possible both individually and organizationally. I earnestly request that you assist me to be elected to the office of Justice of the Peace so that I can better serve you and our children.

Your support and vote are most humbly asked with the assurance to you that I will make you a good Justice of the Peace.

Be sure to vote for two.

Thanking you,
RUSSELL ELLIOTT
Candidate for Justice of the Peace Beat 5.

A reception for more than 400 friends and relatives was part of the all-day celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony DiLorenzo Sunday at Long Beach. The couple, married June 13, 1909, in Hattiesburg, began the day by attending mass and participating with their family, in holy communion at St. Thomas Catholic Church. Among the guests from Bay St. Louis were three daughters, Mesdames Joe Chinchic, Sylvester Benigno and Sam Compretta and grandchildren, Kathleen and Joanne Benigno and Francis, Josie Mae and Rosemary Compretta.

The morning service was made especially significant for the couple by the serving of their four sons, Ben, Frank, Adam and Salvador DiLorenzo, as altar boys.

couple's maid of honor 50 years ago, was matron of honor in Sunday's ceremony.

A particularly gala moment was dancing of the first musical number, The Anniversary Waltz, by the DiLorenzos, after which the other guests joined in general dancing.

Both natives of Italy, the couple have resided on the Gulf Coast 35 years, coming here from Bogalusa. Mr. DiLorenzo is a farmer.

By GLORIA MAULDIN
DAIRY MONTH

A tall glass of cold milk. A dish heaped with your favorite flavor of ice cream. A bright red tomato topped with creamy cottage cheese.

How do they sound for hot weather eating? Tasty. . . delicious and full of food value, too.

These and other dairy products are leading the plentiful foods list during June, Dairy Month, which will be here in just a few days.

Following close behind dairy products on the plentiful list for June are eggs. For picnics, out-of-school snacks for the children or as part of meals, why not try stuffed or deviled eggs.

DEVILED EGG FILLINGS
To fill 6 hard-cooked eggs, try one of these as a mix with the yolks:

2 teaspoons of anchovy paste
1/2 cup grated cheese; 1 or 2 slices of bacon, crisply cooked and minced; 1/3 teaspoon curry with 1/3 cup chopped ripe olives; 3 tablespoons minced chicken ham, lobster, shrimp or mushrooms; 3 tablespoons minced or grated onion with 1/2 tablespoon minced parsley; 1 tablespoon minced pimiento; 3 tablespoons crab flakes, broken apart with a fork.

Other food features for June include spring vegetables, broiler-fryers, small turkeys and vegetable fats and oils.

STUFFED SLICED EGGPLANT
Take 1 large (2-1/2 pounds) eggplant, 1/2 cup salad or olive

PUP IN A CUP—Midge, the eight-week-old chihuahua of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Folsom, is so tiny that she fits comfortably into the teacup Mrs. Folsom is holding. The puppy is much smaller than the other four in the litter but is otherwise normal and friendly.

132 Farms in County Use Conservation Practices

Hancock County farmers are using the Agricultural Conservation Program to establish conservation practices on their farms. Through May 29, a total of 132 different farmers in Hancock County were approved by the Hancock ASC County Committee for carrying out conservation practices under the 1959 ACP. Practice approvals on these farms represent $15,000, for this purpose, according to Mary E. Favre, ASC County office manager.

Under the program, federal government shares the cost with a farmer in carrying out the most needed conservation practices on his farm. Contribution by the government is about 50 per cent of the cost of seed and fertilizer for temporary practices, such as millet and sudan for summer cover, and oats, vetch, and winter peas for winter cover.

On permanent-type practices, the government contributes approximately 65 per cent of the cost for performing such practices as the establishment of Bahia grass, Bermuda grass, Dallis grass, white clover, ditches, timber stand improvement, and livestock water ponds.

The local office now has $600. In 1959 ACP funds left to help farmers carry out conservation practices during the remainder of this year. Among these practices which can be carried out

Former Stanislaus Pupil Heading to Theater Fame

Traveling the hectic road to possible theatrical fame is a young former student at St. Stanislaus College, and husband of Bay St. Louis girl.

Luke V. Saucier Jr., who recently visited his father in Pearl River, first was introduced to audiences as a professional snake handler at the Reptile Jungle, near Sildell. He had driven trucks for a few years after his graduation from St. Stanislaus College.

Now he has advanced to his first speaking television role, as Collins, one of the "bad guys" on the upcoming episode, "Come but Not Forgotten," of the Yancy Derringer series, a Desilu production.

Saucier first was noticed by film officials when a movie crew came to a bayou near Lacombe, to shoot scenes for Swamp Woman in 1955. The young snake handler doubled for star Touch Connors in an alligator wrestling match and the crew and performers urged him to try Hollywood.

He had learned a special trick of popping the reptile on the nose, causing his mouth to fly open, ready for food or fight. Then Saucier would touch the reptile on the tongue, removing his hands just before the mammoth jaws snapped shut.

In far-off California, working for a snake farm, Saucier met his wife, the former Betty Lee Mitchell. He then spent six weeks in a hospital recovering from a rattlesnake bite and she visited him there. They began dating after his release.

His first stab at television was in Chicago in 1957 with a reptile show called Wild Cargo. He decided then to follow the suggestion of the Swamp Woman crew and head for the West.

Desilu Productions there named him as a stand-in for Jack Mahoney, star of Yancy Derringer. His only previous dramatic

Retirement of This Clergyman Short Lived

One of the shorter retirements in Methodist Church history is credited to the Rev. J. Cude Rousseaux of 320 Jeff Davis Avenue, Waveland.

Last week the Echo carried a story that Mr. Rousseaux had ended 51 years of service in the Louisiana Methodist Conference.

But Friday, one day after publication, the clergyman accepted a position in the Seashore District of the Mississippi Methodist Conference from Bishop Marvin A. Franklin. Mr. Rousseaux is now the new associate pastor of the Clermont Harbor charge.

He will work with the Rev. Kermit Rouse, who returned to this charge for another year. Churches at Pearl River and Waveland are included in the charge.

Mr. Rousseaux has now decided that he really didn't retire, he was just without a charge for a while.

AT PT. JACKSON—Leo R. Rousseaux, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Paul Rousseaux, of 431 Bayview St., has been assigned to Company C, 1st Battalion, 1st Training Regiment at Fort Jackson, S.C., for eight weeks of basic combat training.

work had been with the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre and the Palisades Players in California, where he had one lead role.

He will start a new Derringer series in August. The locally remembered ex-snake handler has played walk-on parts and recently participated in a shoot-out with Derringer in the series. The concluding segment of the current series includes the speaking part of this scene, which was filmed recently for release.

Youth Held For Jury in Theft

George Hudson, 18, of Lakeshore, was bound over to action of the grand jury on $750 bond after he pleaded guilty June 11 before JP Nellius C. Rhodes to stealing a 5 1/2 horsepower outboard motor from a brewery firm's skiff docked at Bordages Fishing Camp.

The robbery was reported May 21 by Lionel Bordages, an operator of the camp, and Lloyd Garcia, runner of the boat. Constable Herman Mazarakis arrested Hudson June 6 after finding the motor at Long Beach and put him in Hancock County Jail overnight.

He was released on bond until trial June 11.

Acreage Allotment Provisions Noted In Soil Bank Plan

Farmers who have contracted to participate in the 1959 Soil Bank Conservation Reserve should remember they must comply with all acreage allotments for the farm as well as all soil bank requirements in order to qualify for payment, J. R. Flaunt, chairman of the Mississippi Agricultural-Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said today.

A program provision sometimes overlooked by farmers requires compliance with all acreage allotments established for the farm. If this is not met the farmer will be ineligible for payment and will leave himself liable for further penalties.

Flaunt noted that farmers should be extremely careful that they do not exceed their permitted acreage of soil bank base crops. Exceeding this permitted acreage can also make a farmer ineligible for the payment which he would otherwise earn.

When a farmer willfully and knowingly harvests from or permits grazing on conservation reserve land, payment is forfeited and in addition he is subject to a civil penalty of 50 per cent of the payment which would have been made for compliance.

GORDON COURAGE ANNOUNCES FOR SUPERVISOR

Gordon Courage

TO THE PEOPLE OF DISTRICT NUMBER FIVE, HANCOCK COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI

Although I know that I am personally known to practically all of the residents of Beat Five, I wish to employ this means in formally introducing myself in behalf of my candidacy for the office of Supervisor of District Five.

I am a lifelong resident of Hancock County, Mississippi. I am a family man and am now employed by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company as ticket clerk and station agent at Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. I have been serving the public for the past 36 years without any demerits in my service. I have served my employer and the public with complete satisfaction and without any complaints from any source.

When elected to the Board of Supervisors in Beat 5, I will continue to serve the public confidently and honestly just as I have served them throughout the past years.

I earnestly promise that I shall endeavor to see that all roads and streets in Beat 5, and roads and streets adjoining the incorporated roads of Waveland and Bay St. Louis will be black-topped, proper drainage will be established, and that all roads will be kept up and properly maintained.

I will assist in every way possible to encourage industry to locate in our County. I will always be ready and willing to assist in any project that will benefit Hancock County.

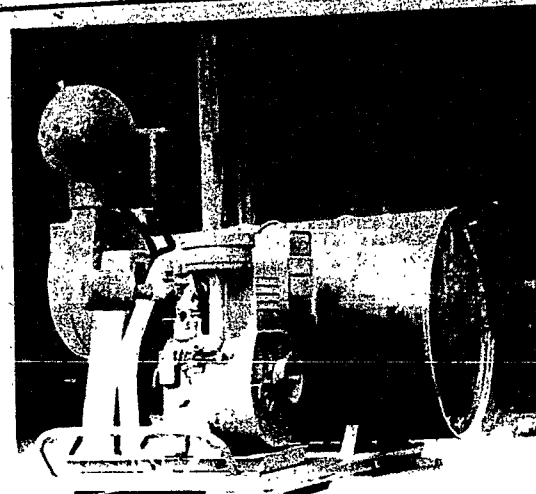

I will make every effort possible to contact and talk with each of you. However, in the event that I cannot contact you personally, please accept this as my personal solicitation for your VOTE and SUPPORT throughout my campaign and in the coming election August 4, 1959.

The meeting was highlighted by the annual hat show, having as its theme Holidays. Many original creations were entered depicting outstanding holidays.

Mesdames Becker, Rosseau, and Salbe of the Blue Jean Garden Club were judges, and awarded first place to Mrs. M. W. Glossinger for her May Day creation of a large picture hat completely covered with daisies. Second place went to Mrs. Leon Duplantier for her Halloween hat of black painted leaves and orange day lilies. Mrs. Lillian Chagnard's Easter hat was third place winner. This hat was fashioned from a plastic basket featuring mimosa flowers woven on to give the effect of fur. A social hour followed, Mrs. L. A. Sauer won the attendance prize.

BATTLE ON BUGS—This is the new fogging machine recently purchased by the city of Bay St. Louis to replace the old one donated in 1949 by the Rotary Club which has worn out. It blows out a chemical mist under terrific pressure, freeing the atmosphere of mosquitos and other bugs. Commissioner of Public Utilities Cyril Glover said it is most effective at night when the humidity keeps the mist settled closer to the ground.

Dear Friend:
I would sincerely like to serve you as Justice of Peace for Beat 5. If you are a good judge, I would be glad to hear from you.
Many thanks,
Ralph...
